Alma Mater, we adore thee
Love your colors gold and blue
There you stand in all your glory
Patient, helpful, kind and true
In our hearts and in our memory
Linger thoughts so dear to you
Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
Our Alma Mater, East High School.

Alma Mater

The reeling film comes to an end . . . scenes of four eventful years have flashed upon the screen of life . . . Actors and actresses have displayed their gifts . . . fate and her critical assemblage have looked on . . . judging their talents . . . now the reckoning approaches . . . in the mystifying future . . . to see if these have shown their true worth.

Forward

The cameras focus upon those who have made this great occasion in our lives possible—our endeared parents—to whom we dedicate this 1940 Janus—in appreciation of every act of love they have bestowed upon us . . . every lesson of citizenship they have taught . . . every educational opportunity they have provided.

ADMINISTRATION

Our forefathers had a keen appreciation of the obligations resting upon each individual in a democracy. They had lived under a government in which they had little or no part. They had felt the hand of tyranny and knew all the evils which it engendered.

When they were framing a government of their own, they adopted a Constitution which gave everyone the opportunity to provide for his own political, economic, and social security. This was to be done by men working in cooperation with others. Success could come only when each individual realized his responsibility to the group.

Despite our mistakes, this success has been the wonder and admiration of the world. To live in free America has been the great desire of all peoples of the world. So long as such ideals dominate the lives and thinking of men, democracy can and will function. Mistakes may be made, but such mistakes are of the brain. People at heart are inherently honest, and as our knowledge and wisdom increases, we correct our mistakes. The essential thing is for us to remember that such power is always in our hands and that such remedies can and will be applied by peaceful means.

The danger is that we may neglect our opportunities. What is everybody's business is likely to be nobody's business. We realize that civic responsibility is the price of democracy, but we must dedicate ourselves to this ideal if we wish to retain the priceless rights and privileges which are now ours.

We know this ideal is in your hearts, but will you make it control your lives? The things you do and the lives you live will be a measure of your real worth to humanity. If you will make your ideals dominate your life, East High and all connected with it, will have reason to be proud of you and will consider the money and effort expended in your behalf but a small payment in one of the most profitable investments it has been their privilege to make.

Academy Awards for 1940

January National Honor Society

The January National Honor Society fostered a "Big Brother" movement in which it attempted to give the lower classmen an incentive to complete school and to obtain membership in the society.

The organization, as its social function, sponsored a banquet for the chapters of the society in this district. The banquet was the first of its kind to be held at East and was a huge success.

Students of the January, 1940, class who were elected to the society are:

Joseph Baal, president; Vera Nespeca, secretary; John Schuller, treasurer; Peggy Williams, Betty Homer, Ann Miely, Ann Ramson, Angeline Agnesi, Betty Hawkins, Gena Leone, Gladys Morris, Kenneth Davis, Louis Chudakoff, Helen Hrubciak, John Puskas, Arthur Morley, and Mabel Haustovich.

January 29, 1936, marked a red-letter day in our history, for then we embarked on our high school career. The whole idea of high school was entirely new to us, and we got into quite a bit of trouble accustoming ourselves to it. However, we finally succeeded in establishing ourselves as sophomores.

As sophomores we were a year older in knowledge and experience, but we still imitated seniors, and considered school a playground. We also learned that what we wanted had to be earned and not given to us as easily as had been the case.

Our junior year, especially the latter half, had been eagerly awaited; for then we would choose our class officers and advisors. It seemed to be the longest year we had in high school, but it wasn't long until the day in November, 1938, that our class organized. The class elected as president, Peter DeFiore; as vice president, Virginia Dibble; as treasurer, John Puskas; and as secretary, Peggy Williams. For our advisors we chose Mr. Reese, Miss Ackworth, Mr. Carlson, and Miss Weber.

Our first social was a private party and dance held in the East High Cafeteria on January 15, 1939. It was a huge success, socially and financially.

Our junior year passed by altogether too swiftly and we suddenly found ourselves seniors. Our teachers asked us to describe the sensation of being seniors. It made us raise our heads a little higher, our chests expanded several inches and perhaps our hat and coat sizes suddenly increased.

Seriously it's a grand feeling to know it won't be long until we are out in the world "on our own" and it gives one a sense of responsibility for one's future.

Our social calendar in our senior B year listed a dance at the Elm's Ballroom with the music of Dale Shears urging us to go out to dance. Our final semester was the most difficult, the most instructive, the nicest semester of our high school life. We had time off from lessons to have our senior play, "Sally's Private Earthquake," on November 30, 1939.

About a month later, on January 5, 1940, the senior A's were defeated by the senior B's in a closely fought basketball game. This is the second time the senior A's lost to the senior B's. We started the tradition.

Our senior prom was held January 19, with our queen, Margaret Halliday, and king, Anthony Bassett reigning. The attendants were Lillian Marzano, Irene Tssaroke, Mary Porcase, Tony Delco, Mike Esposito, and Charles Amendolara.

The last week was the most glorious of all. On January 21, we held our Baccalaureate services in the East High Auditorium. Our class day exercises and banquet were held on January 24. The class day exercises in the East High auditorium, and the banquet in the Picadilly Room at the Tod Hotel.

We received our diplomas on January 26, 1940, in the East High Auditorium and thus we passed out into the world . . . "on our own."

Locale: Brookfield College, day before Commencement.

A thrilling and romantic farce entitled Spring Fever was vividly portrayed by the June graduating class on May 28 . . . there is plenty of action . . . for spring fever strikes Brookfield College just before Commencement . . . parents, friends, relatives, and girl friends add to the general confusion. Amidst these, the plot of the play revolves . . . Comedy and romance are the main currents throughout. . . Manager of the production was A. J. Whitaker.

ANTHONY ASEMKA

We entered East High School in the winter of 1936. The fearfully cold weather at that time can explain our feelings better than words. We moved into our freshman year with a greater inspiration for school activities. This inspiration was the prime factor in the establishment of a new school paper known as the "Class of 40"—a paper reserved for our class activities. The more interested students represented East High at the Scholarship tests at Kent.

We reached our sophomore year with a feeling of greater importance. It was in this year that we began to branch out into different clubs throughout East. From these clubs, most of us received our first lesson in how officials control different communities. It wasn't until our junior year when our class officers were elected and still later in our senior year when the Council-assembly came into effect, that we received our real lesson in government.

Mike Palchefskey became our class president after a very colorful campaign, in which slogans and campaign speeches figured. Politics, on a small scale, entered our school life. Theresa Gonda was elected vice-president; Virginia Rock, secretary; Morris Warino, treasurer; Miss Dorothy Jones, Miss Higley, Mr. Barrett, and Mr. Schwartz were chosen class advisors. We chose Blue and Silver for our class colors—the American Beauty for our class flower.

However, our junior year was not all spent in electing someone or choosing something. Soon after the organization of our class, we held our first social—a get-acquainted party. At this party, the more aggressive helped the bashfuls overcome their social fears. Since most of the girls were able to dance, they taught the boys a few steps. The girls also took the bashful boy situation well in hand—or should it be put the other way?

We were soon to reach the fourth and last step towards that goal for which we were striving so hard—graduation. For some, graduation meant the end—only an end to a greater beginning. It was during our senior year that we held most of our social events—and they certainly caused the book-worm to close his book—the dreamer to wake up to reality. A senior can easily be recognized by his rush to get his ring, pictures, graduation clothes—complete preparation for the fruit of the harvest.

Baccalaureate Services were attended; then came the dazzling banquet. We were soon to come to Commencement Day which meant—as far as being a student is concerned—

—Goodbye to our Alma Mater.

It is Friday, the eighth period . . . yes, for the second time in our alma mater's existence . . . a student government has been organized . . . President Donald Williams rises . . . the gavel sounds upon the table . . . the thirteen member legislature comes to order . . . the Student Council is in action . . . A constitutional convention was held in May, 1939, providing for a student government. . . Now in 1940 the Council has come into effect . . . and as can be expected, this year entails a period of probation and trial.

Student Council

The secondary legislative body provided for by the student-government constitution is the assembly . . . the representation is greater than the council . . . by the addition of an amendment to the original constitution, governing officers were set up for the group . . . assemblyman Patsy Simone was elected president to pilot the organization through its first semester . . . Mr. Higgs and Miss Gerrity, advisors of the council, are also advisors of the assembly.

Bright uniforms colorfully dotting a gridiron . . . precise maneuvers under the floodlights . . . peppy tunes played for assemblies . . . These are some of the many activities in which the high-stepping lads and lassies in the East High Band encourage school spirit.

We rightly may be proud of this branch of our music department, for under the guidance of Terry Carson it has become not only one of the best-uniformed but also one of the best drilled bands in the City.

Band

The sweet strains of a Strauss waltz that one may hear every day the third period, announce to all that the Senior Orchestra is rehearsing for one of the many affairs in which it participates annually. Harmonious background is provided for the senior plays and graduation exercises, and the orchestra plays a major role in the annual May festival and other musical programs.

Mr. Elusive News must be tracked to his lair . . . Well, no sooner said than done . . . Mr. Elusive News is snared and imprisoned in type . . . Farewell to you, dear Echo, say these long-nosed journalists, graduating this year; Theresa Gonda, Nick Dundee, Linda Massulla, Catherine Scherl, Ann Serblin, Mary Griffin, Margaret Halladay, and Robert Harding.

Government ownership of railroads . . . that was the question of discussion for the East debaters this year . . . Fast and furious were the speeches pro and con . . . The able speakers were Helen Monacki, Jack Malkoff, Dorothy Watson, Robert Murray, and John Bucur . . . Indeed, even the judges had a terrible time . . . in fact they engaged in their own debate . . . Mr. Leon Morris acts as coach and advisor.

Being on needles and pins these boys certainly are on edge with a complete round of social activities to keep them going places. The bonds of fellowship are strengthened and held together by huge safety pins which are the club emblems. Atop their heads they wear blue skull caps, dangling white tassels, the most distinguishing mark of their society.

Pin Club

That familiar personality we see every Tuesday night at the Y. M. C. A. is none other than John Eizonas presiding over the weekly meetings of the East Hi-Y. Through its many social functions and regular meetings this chapter of a nation-wide fellowship creates much pleasure and good will among its members. Walter C. Leyda and Myron B. Reese complete the unit by serving as advisors. With a present membership of 35, the Hi-Y is constantly growing in influence and popularity.

Leaves from a G. A. A. member's diary. September: G. A. A. organized this month. October: presented a style show at an all-girl assembly; first activity of the year, a Masquerade party. December: Paramount, a theater party; had a gay time at a Christmas party. February: a party in honor of Washington's Birthday. March: Palace theater party. April: square dancing in Annual Spring Festival; "jitterbugging" at the G. A. A. Sport Hop. May: peddled on a Bicycle Party. June: Farewell Party, last G. A. A. social for graduating members.

Girls' Athletic Association

Mary Walsh, Helen Schulick, Rose Brown, and Minnie Manna were honored as the first officers to be elected by the Home Economics Club, being respectively president, vice president, treasurer, and secretary. Mary Wary and Phyllis Easton, Social Chairmen, took over the reigns of planning social affairs. Aiding and advising the group are Misses Lowmiller, Joslyn, Davis, and Leonard.

Miss Brewster delivers a speech of welcome; the ceremony ends; newcomers have been initiated and admitted into the Junior Girl Reserves. Following this, committees were appointed.

Junior Girl Reserves

The inscription over the clubroom reads "Senior Girl Reserves" . . . within we see a bevy of girls, smiling faces, pleasing personalities, helping hands. There at a large desk presides president, Theresa Gonda; vice president, Hildegard Hubert; secretary, Lenore Craven; treasurer, Jennie Strollo. Social chairman, Linda Massulla, announces another event for the social calendar which already registers . . . A Barn Dance . . . An old-time hayride and weiner roast. A Skirt and Sweater Party . . . A Bell Hop . . . A Farewell Banquet.

How would you like to have a pen pal in Italy? The members of the Italian Square Club correspond with students in Italy in order to get a true picture of social life in Italy. In this way the club has a source of dependable information regarding Italian culture.

Hermes, Mercury, Daphne, Juno . . . of course, it's Roman mythology. With the organization of the Inter Nos Club in 1939 under Miss Wintzer, the Renaissance arrived at East. Studies in Roman life, customs, and mythology is the main interest of this organization. Motto of these classical enthusiasts is "Senesco Discens"—translation: "I continue to learn as long as I live."

Jr. Boys' Glee Club

A limited membership of one hundred music-minded girls from the ninth grade comprises this group of songsters. Rehearsals were changed to the sixth period for added convenience to these enthusiasts. Since this is the youngest girls' music group, it has not as yet participated in many programs; however, their performance in the girls' assembly in April revealed what fine work they can do.

Oldest, most prominent, and best groomed of the vocal music groups is the Senior Choir, a select body of boys and girls chosen from the Glee Clubs and Junior Choir. They made their debut in the operetta "Showboat" in November. During the Christmas assembly, their beautiful voices rang out in the Yuletide hymns. They also performed at Baccalaureate and graduation services of the January Class.

Senior Choir

These two popular groups, newly organized and superintended by Ronald Richards, displayed talent in their initial musical show, entitled "Showboat" presented November 6. It proved to be a very successful bow for the boys and the girls. As the prelude to the play, the girls sang "The Breeze and Soft Winds." The boys' group entertained with "Wishing" and "My Little Banjo." Latest presentation of the combined groups was the colorful operetta "El Bandido" on March 13. The male group gave a grand performance over WFMJ and the half-hour Boy-Scout program.

SPORTS

Real athletics scores again . . . Building physically is as essential as building mentally . . . Losing graciously is as important as winning modestly . . . for no life can be called complete without good health and sportsmanship.

Up at 8 for skull practice and out on the field until 6:30 . . . so goes the day for coach Barrett and his assistant, Mr. Honey; when football season rolls around. The East coaches talk, eat, and sleep football along with their boys, and their record for the "39" season shows that their football mindedness was with some purpose. The team went out last fall and did the trick by making a clean sweep of the City Championship. East High boasts of the players, coaches, and loyal fellows of the varsity eleven.

ALL-CITY TITLES

Four of the East players won a berth on the first string of the all-city football team. They were: fullback, Jack Powis; end, Leo Battisti; tackle, Casper Diana; guard, William Gardner. Those making the second team were: quarterback, Joe Vanasky; halfback, Al Perl; tackle, John Puskas; center, Vince Fergus.

Football

East 0—New Castle 13

For the fifth consecutive year, the knights of the blue and gold raised their banners under the direction of Coach Dick Barrett. Results of their first game was a 13 to 0 loss at the hands of a well balanced and sturdy New Castle eleven. The East High crew looked good in all departments despite their inexperience.

East 6—Sharon 13

The Sharonites were a little too tough for the Sunrisers, taking them to the tune of 13 to 6. Both teams scored in the second quarter, Bayer accounting for Sharon's six points while Powis produced for East. Both tries for extra points failed. The Sharon combine broke the deadlock in the fourth quarter when Petrowski went over from the 1 yard line, climaxing a 97 yard drive. Sharon led in first downs, 14 to 7, but East's aerial attack was always dangerous, completing 3 out of 11.

East 18—Rayen 0

A smooth working offense and air-tight defense placed the Rayen eleven on the short end as the Sunrisers captured the encounter by a score of 18 to 0. The Barrettmen gained their first six points of the game late in the second quarter when quarterback Joe Vanasky carried the pigskin over the scoring stripes. In the third quarter, Vince Fergus, East center, intercepted a Rayen pass and sprinted 60 yards for a second touchdown. East tallied six more points in the fourth quarter when Pete Fuzer, pass snatching wizard, took in Nick Fabian's pass in the end zone. Three tries for the extra points failed. The game ended with the East reserves deep in Rayen territory.

East 6—Memorial 16

East's Blue and Gold warriors suffered their third loss at the hands of a tough Campbell Memorial eleven. Modack, Barillairo, Hasaper, and Holliday led a Campbellite attack for 14 points in the first period.

East's lone tally came in the second period when Perl dashed 40 yards on a faked reverse. The extra point was not good. Memorial got their third and final two points when a bad pass from center went into the end zone for an automatic safety.

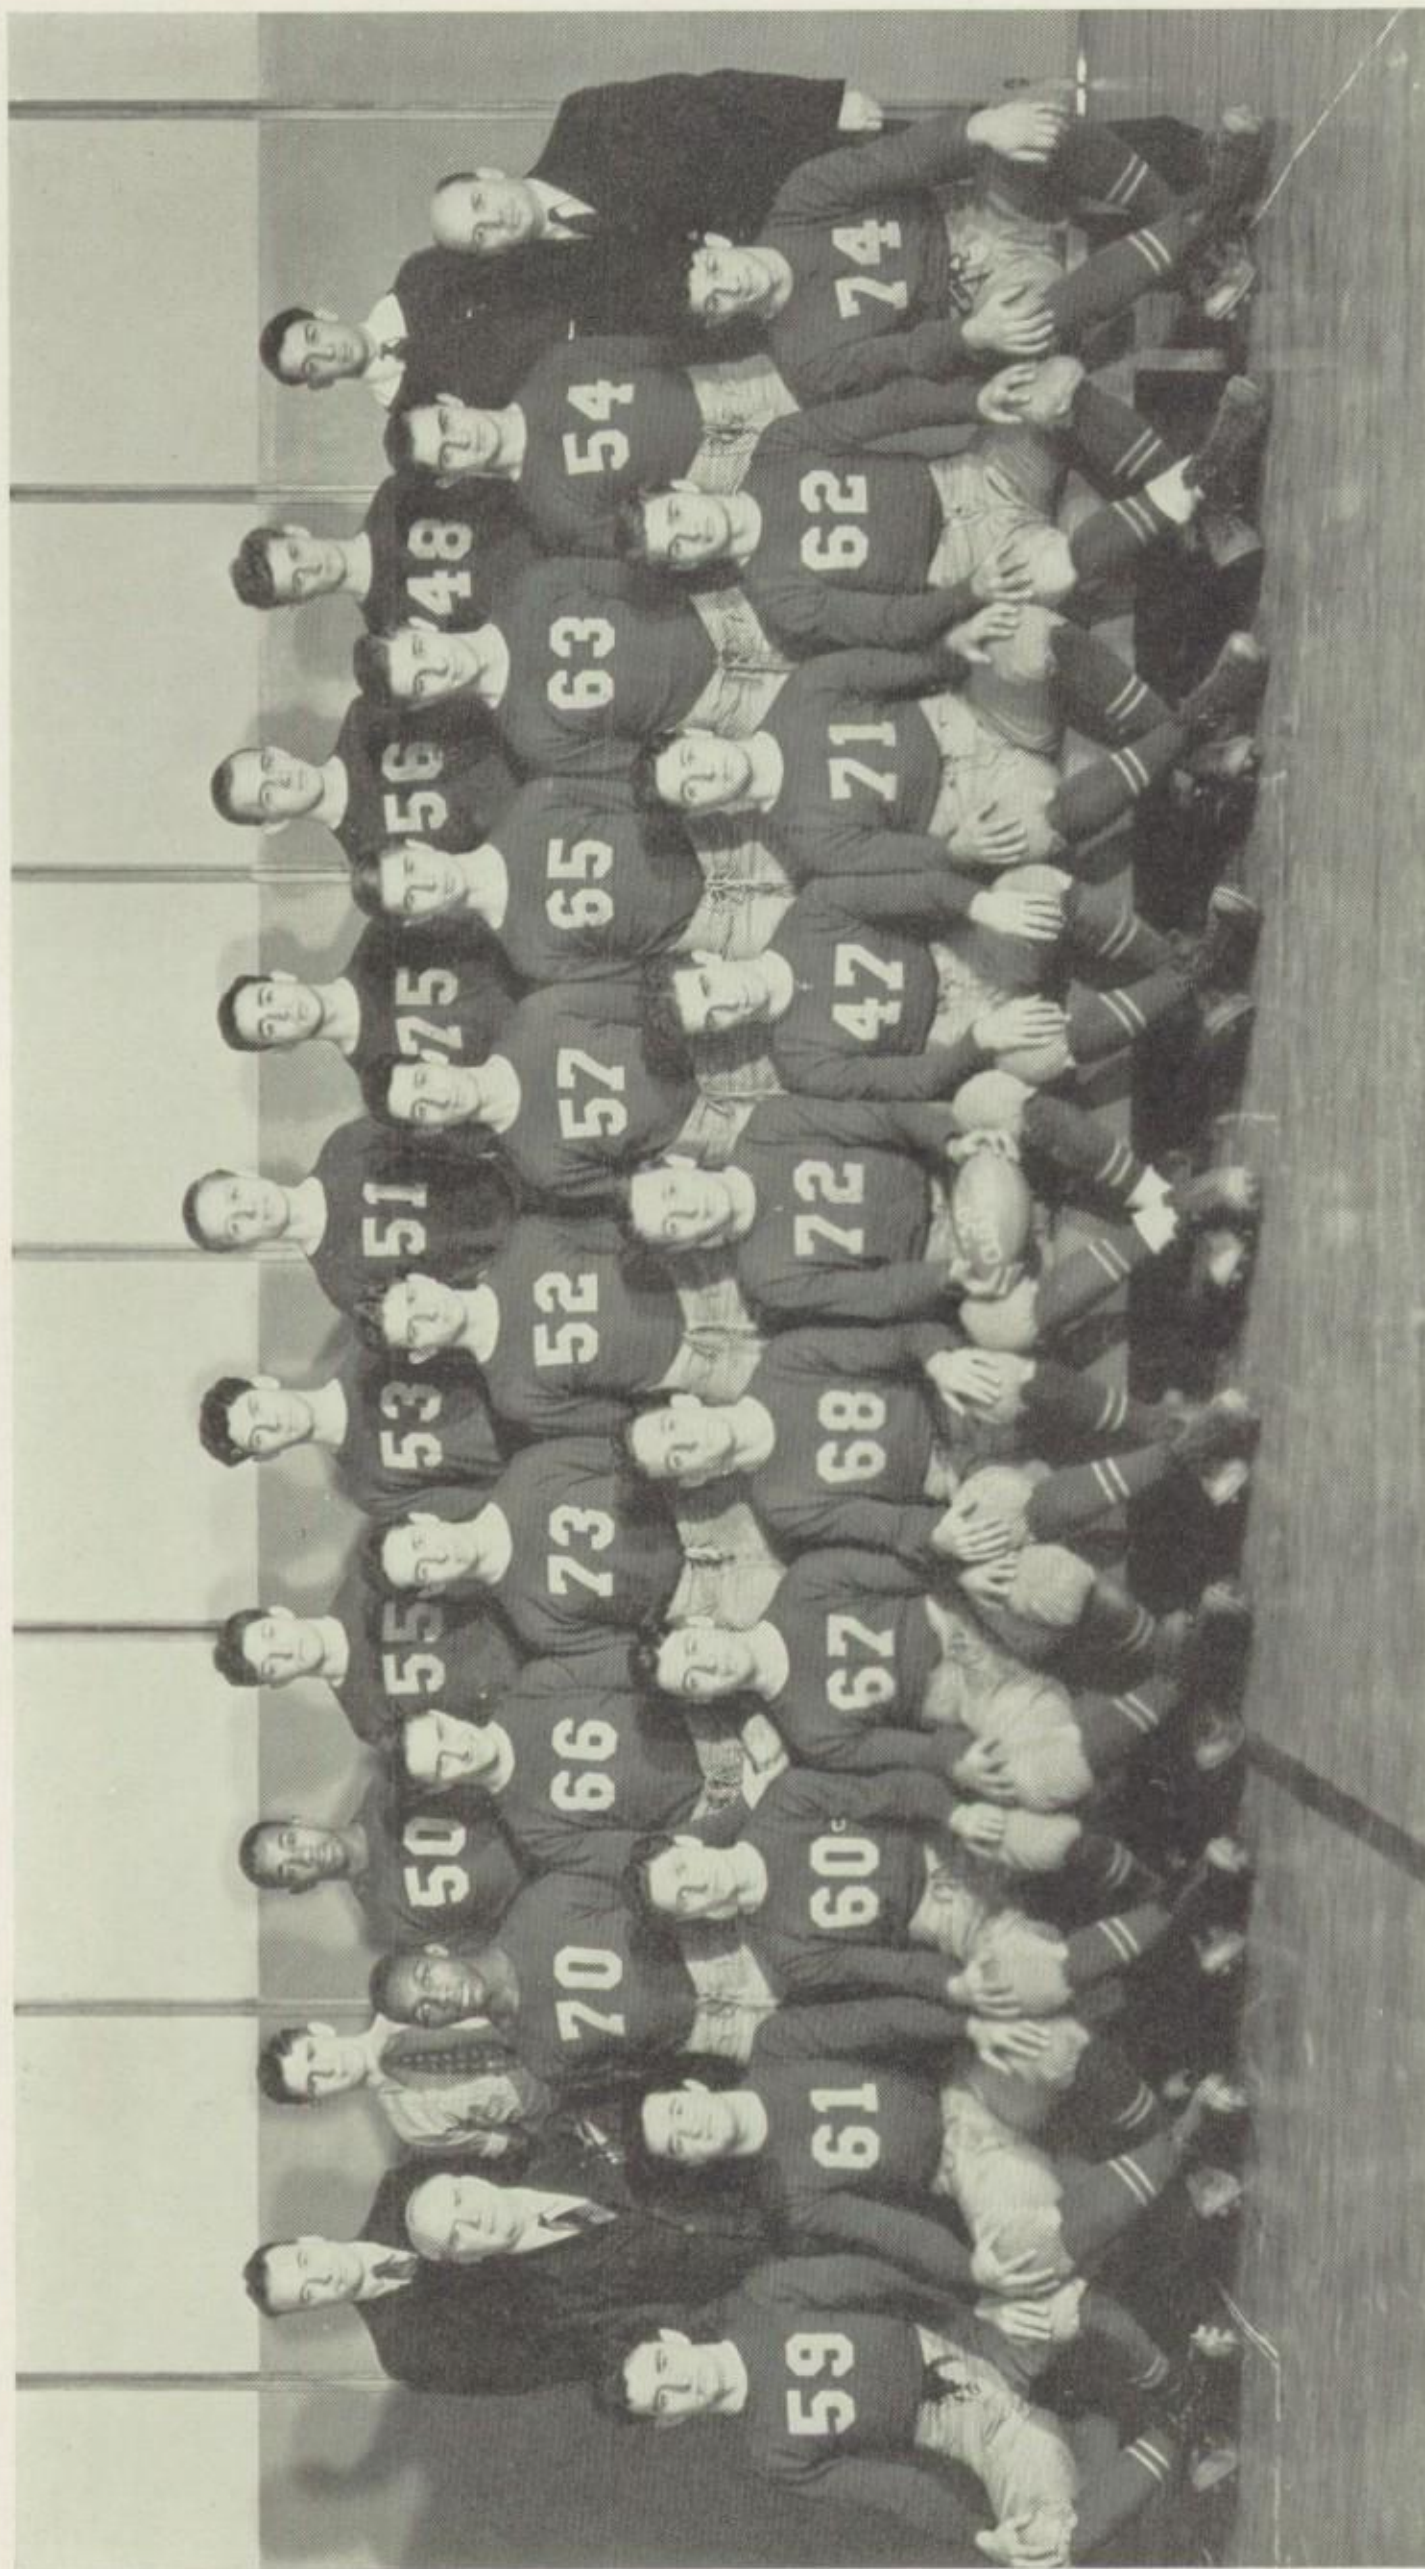

East 0—Ursuline 0

The Green and White of Ursuline, and the Blue and Gold of East battled to a scoreless tie at South High Stadium. The game was featured with many pass interceptions and last minute tackles. Punting of both teams was superb, with Perl performing for East and Hura and Knisley taking turns for the Irish.

East 6—South 0

On a rain soaked gridiron, the East gridgers took a second step towards the City Championship by downing the Southsiders 6 to 0. A crowd of more than 6,000 fans saw the Barrettmen take advantage of an early break to score the only touchdown of the game. Two minutes after the opening kickoff, South decided to punt from their own 23 yard line but Fergus blocked the punt and Pete Fuzer fell on the ball over the goal line. The extra point was not good. The whole East team performed brilliantly while Cramb, South quarterback, was bad news for the East eleven.

East 21—Struthers 19

Talmadge Jackson's educated toe helped the Sunrisers to subdue an aggressive Struthers' High eleven and to add another victory to the small Barrett's win column over the big Barrett. Scoring was rather evenly distributed throughout the game. Perl, Powis, and Vanasky also sparkled for the East eleven while Battista, Braur, and Vargin were Struthers' mainstays.

East 25—Woodrow Wilson 7

The East gridders had too many scoring aces for the Wilson crew, walloping them 25-7. Jackson, Powis, DeFranzo, and Berger accounted for the Easterners' winning margin. Petrollini passed to Neider for the Southsiders' lone tally. Although the East reserves played most of the game, the East eleven were never in trouble.

East 7—Bellaire 7

One of the most thrilling games seen at the South High Stadium during the "39" season was the tilt between East High and Bellaire which terminated in a 7-7 deadlock. A highly rated Bellaire opposition, one of the best in the state scholastic competition, was completely outclassed in every division except scoring. The Sunrisers' 7 points came in the first quarter when Jackson hit tackle for 8 yards and scored standing up as a climax of a 74 yard drive. Jackson also added the extra point from placement. Bellaire's tally came midway in the second period with Malley's touchdown and Toltka's place-kick.

East 13—Chaney 7

East High greeted the new Thanksgiving Day, November 23, with a 13-7 victory over the jinx Chaney to clinch the City Championship. The first score of the game developed in the third quarter when Laskin, East end, blocked William's punt and Diana, East tackle, fell on the pigskin over the goal line. Jackson's try for the extra point was wide. The Blue and Gold continued its drive in the fourth quarter as Jackson plunged over for a touchdown from the 1 yard line. Powis plunged over for the extra point. Chaney's tally came in the fourth period when Thompson went over from the one yard line. Williams place-kicked the extra point. East bagged the first down verdict by a 7 to 3 margin.

Football Scores

Coach Harley Littler and assistant coach, John Hunter, drilled and trained and trained and drilled a group of boys, seriously interested in the cage game. The efforts of both boys and coaches were not to go unrewarded for the boys finished the 1940 city series campaign without a hitch. To a team that had what it took and to coaches Littler and Hunter who helped the boys acquire what it takes, go the gratitude and appreciation of the personnel of East High.

Littler - Hunter

East 42—Fitch 33

East began the basketball season with a 42-33 win over Austintown's Fitch. East lead all the way, the scoring being well distributed.

East 32—Ellwood City 28

The Sunrisers were greeted by a stubborn quintet at Ellwood City, but they eked out a 32-28 win. This was East's second victory.

East 36—Euclid 37

The boys from Euclid Shore of Cleveland snapped East's winning streak by a 37-36 count on the East floor. It was a breath-taking contest, the lead changing several times.

East 25—Memorial 28

Another heart-breaker to the East rooters was the 28-25 loss at the hands of the Campbell Memorial five.

East 39—Canfield 34

The third victory for the East basketeters, developed when Canfield was edged out 39-34 at Canfield. 23 points by the McPhee brothers were netted for Canfield; Fergus and Dellick tallied 21 for East.

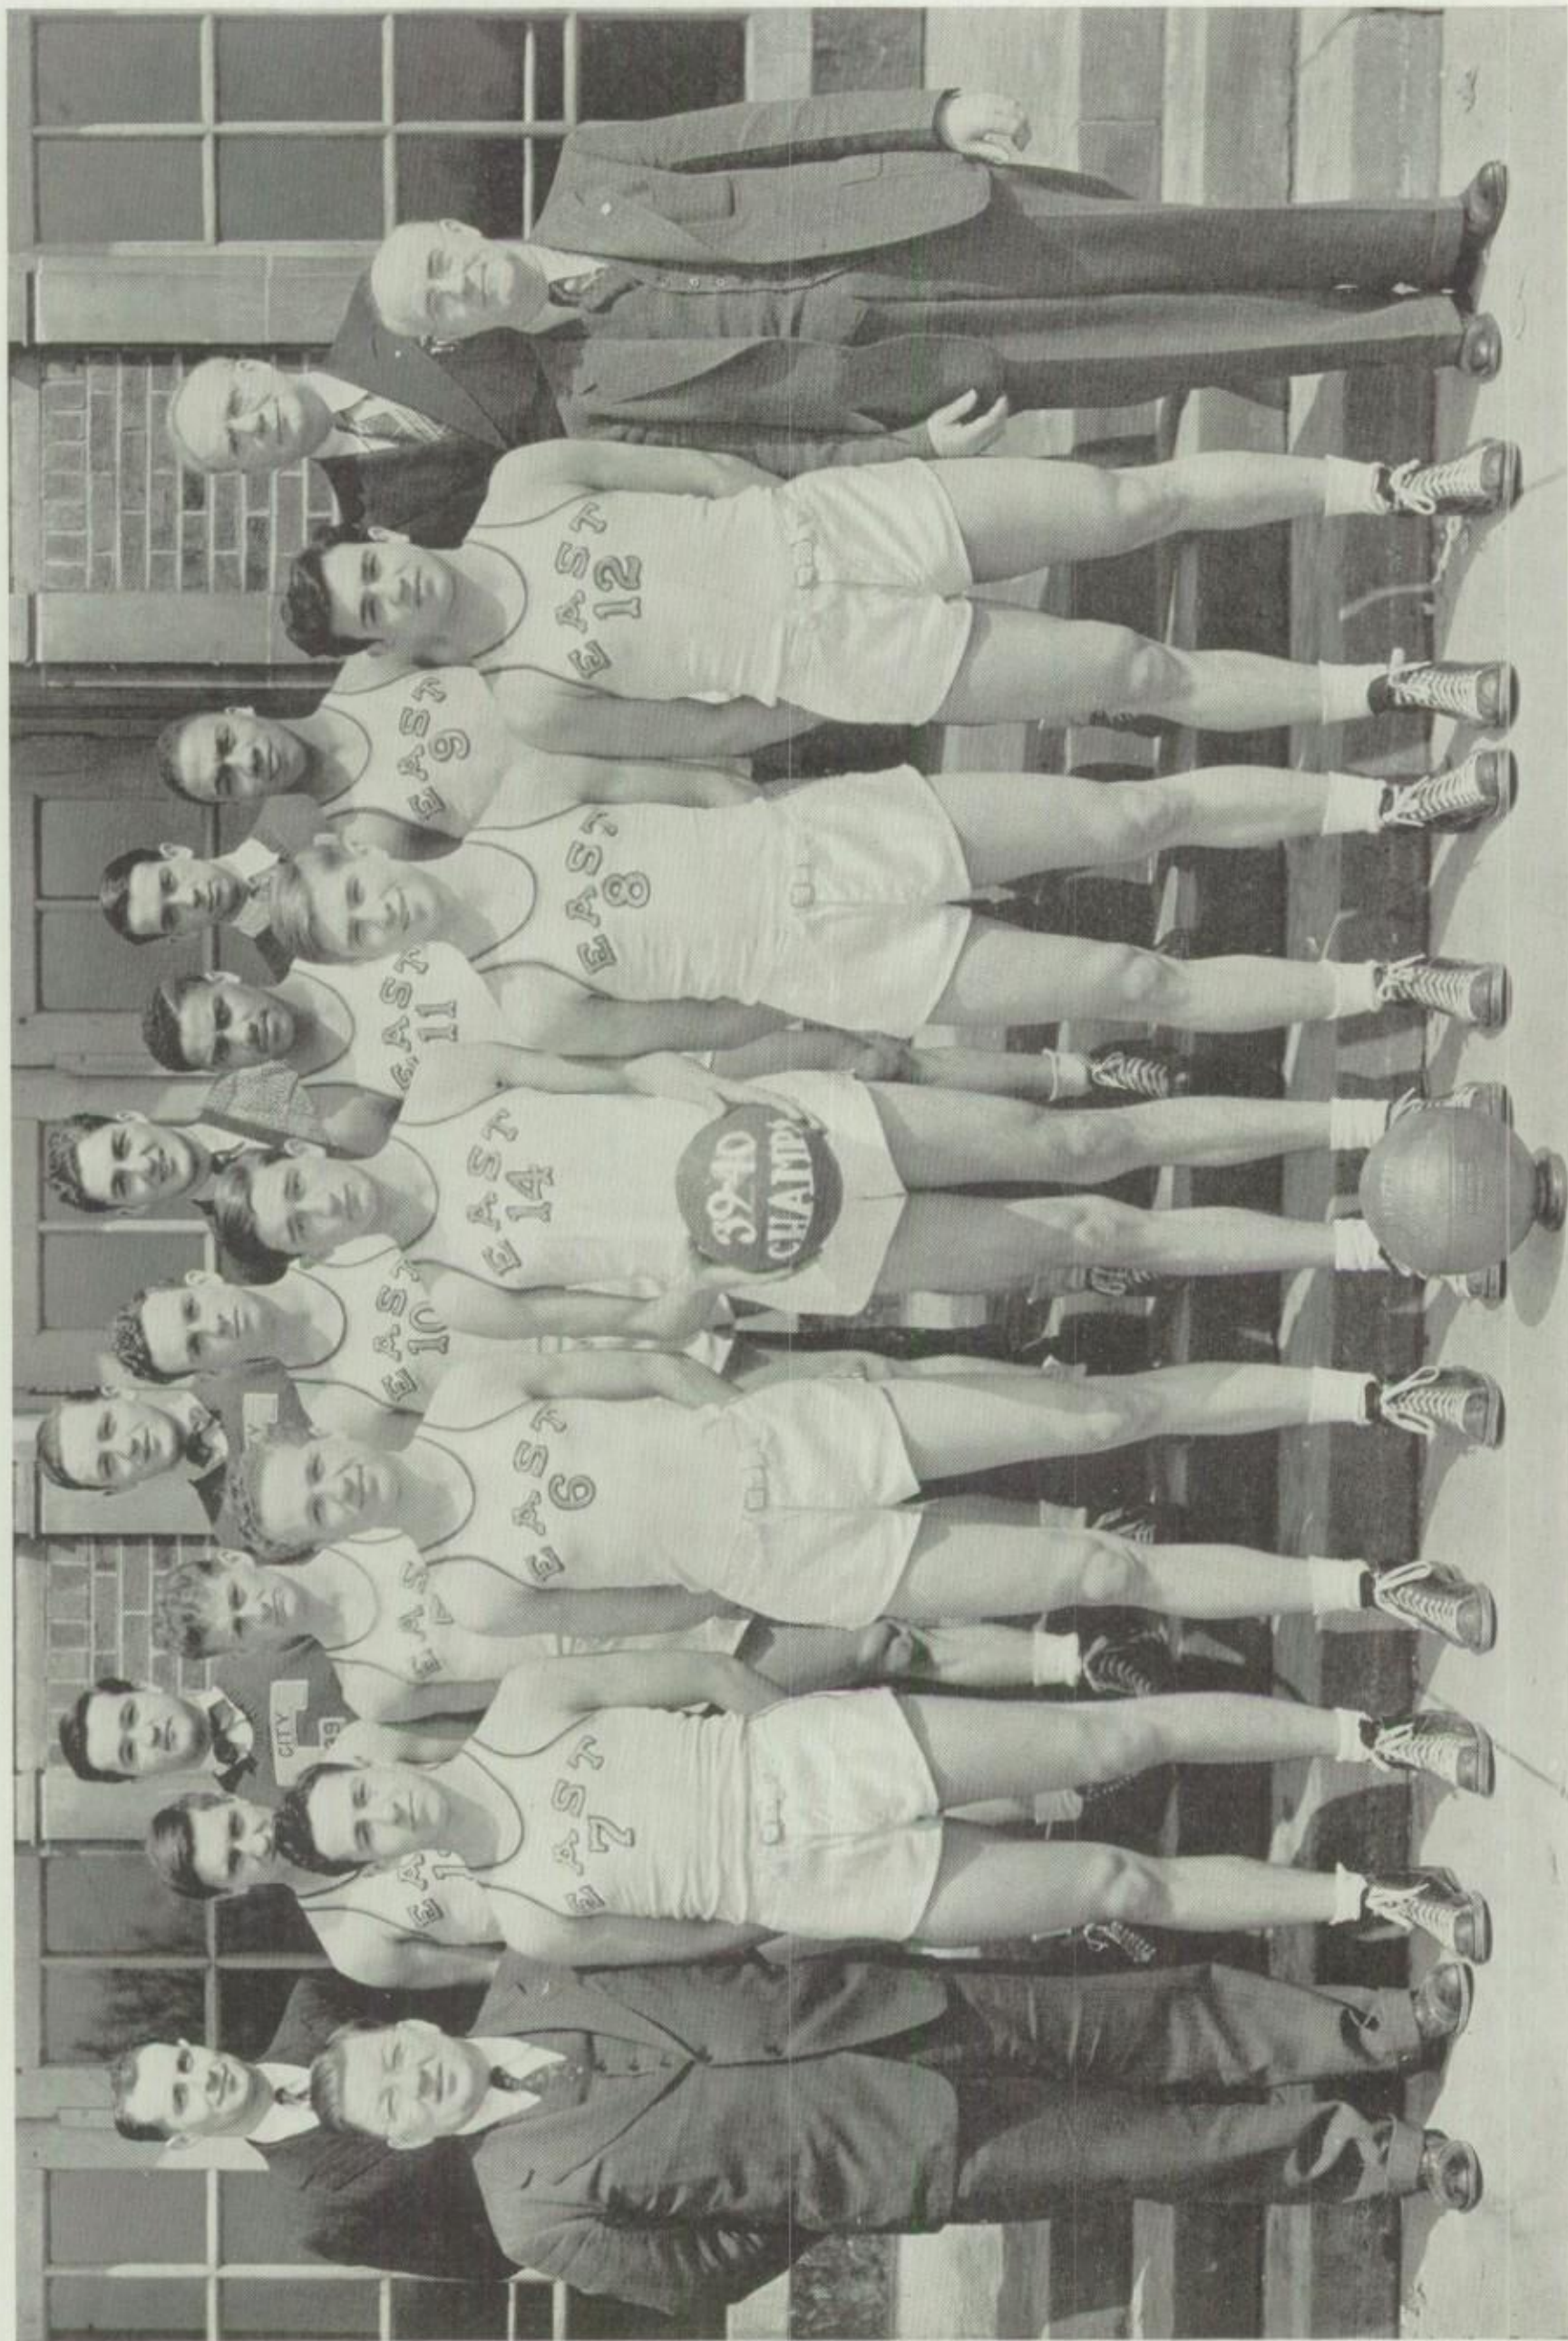

East 36—Newton Falls 15

Coach Harley Littler's five downed Newton Falls 36-15 at Newton Falls. Dellick was the individual star, sinking seven field goals for 14 points.

East 39—Ursuline 28

Frank Dellick looped in 15 points as the East High Cagers toppled Ursuline, 39-28, in a game at East. East held margins of 9-6, 21-12 and 22-19 at the quarters. Fullerman, Dorsey, and Rosselli were the kingpins of the Ursuline attack.

Basketball Scores

East 36—Struthers 33

East High recorded its sixth basketball triumph, vanquishing Struthers on the East High floor, 36-33, in an overtime thriller. In the overtime period, Dellick converted a foul and Fuzer tossed in a field goal to clinch the win for East. Dellick contributed 16 points.

East 46—Bessemer 25

The Blue and Gold swamped the Bessemer quintet, 46-25, at Bessemer. The invaders displayed a well-balanced attack built around Dellick, Fuzer, Lanzi, and Vanasky. Swanson and Johnson shared honors for the losers.

East 46—South 31

East had too many scoring aces for the Southsiders, triumphing 46-31. Dellick, Fuzer, and Vanasky led the way in maintaining a comfortable margin all through the game.

East 38—Hubbard 21

Another victory for the East cagers was chalked up at Hubbard over Hubbard High, 38-21. Margins at the quarters were 8-2, 22-7, and 26-11. Fuzer, Lanzi, and Dellick, were the pace setters for the Sunrisers, while Guidash, and Richards performed for Hubbard.

East 60—Scienceville 21

The East High cagers went on a scoring spree, shellacking Scienceville 60-21. The whole East crew figured in the scoring.

East 53—Woodrow Wilson 33

Pete Lanzi chalked up 27 points as coach Littler's five stormed to its third city series triumph, trimming Woodrow Wilson 53-33, on the latter's floor. Although Wilson's five starters proceeded to score, they were no match for the fast pace set down by the visitors.

East 43—Niles 31

The Niles quintet found the going tough when they met East for a 43-31 setback. East did well in all departments.

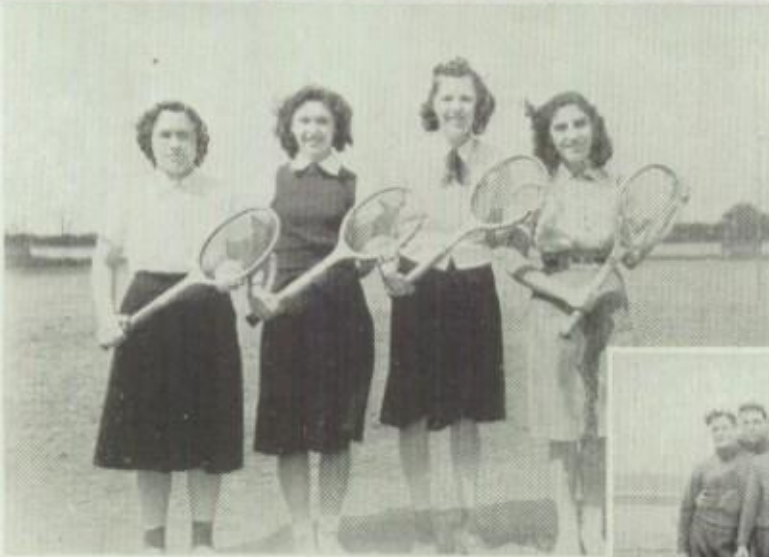

East 41—Rayen 40

Freezing the ball for the last few seconds of the game, the Eastsiders gained a 41-40 verdict over a stubborn Rayen five. The Sunrisers led all the way, but the fourth quarter got them in hot water, when the Rayenites bombarded the hoop from all angles. Lanzi, Dellick, Fuzer, and Vanasky showed the way for the victors. Rayen starting five performed well.

East 51—Chaney 25

The regular season schedule for East ended in a blaze of glory with a 51-25 triumph over Chaney. This marked East's twelfth straight triumph and a clean sweep of the City Series Ribbons.

Leaves are falling . . . There is a hint of frost in the air . . . Friday night is the first night of the basketball practice . . . The bitterly fought contests end with the gold team victorious captained by Olga Bodnar; Betty Benford, Marion Everett, Edith Cole, Emma Coleman, June Lockhart, and Elizabeth Mike were members of the winning team. High point honors go to Emilie Owens for perfect shooting.

Temperature drops . . . Record freeze recorded . . . but plenty of steam is worked up by the volley ball contests . . . As a warm up game for baseball, it serves double duty on chilly days. Final game finds Hilda Hubert's hazelnut team ahead. Vigorous volleyballers were: Margaret Davis, Theresa Mike, Virginia Dibble, Dot Nusser, and Elizabeth Patterson.

It's sunny in Florida . . . but not so warm in Steeltown . . . Still there's swimming for those who can't go south . . . Especially enthusiastic are: Mary Alexander, Angeline Omodio, Elaine Dobresco, Jean Miller, Martha Sebastian, Lila Wright, Eleanor Burns, B. Colantone, Agnes Koleda, Kathryn Palyan, and Lavina Stride. Ranking highest are: Juanita Wining, and Katherine Chainese, who have passed their Junior Life Saving Tests.

April Showers . . . only it's showering snow. Along with the snowballs, there are also ping-pong balls for this is the one more popular minor sport. Among those who delight in banging the balls around are: Elizabeth Mike, Olga Bodnar, Erma Nusser, Jeanette Vassel, Ruth Whiteside, Theresa Sweden, Helen Demidovich, and Ann Samsonchick. Tip-top ping-ponger—is Theresa Mike who copped the championship by defeating her sister Elizabeth.

Hitting the bull's eye is an easy task for those skilled in the bow and arrow art. Ann Noga with first place honors seems to be in this class. Virginia Lickner and Darle McCoy provided keen competition and came through second and third. Other enthusiasts are Jeanette Vassel, Theresa Mike, Elizabeth Mike, Ida Aswad, Elizabeth Burns, Edith Heyman, Selma Sisman, Ethel Weinstein, Clara Patterman, and Agnes Koleda.

INSPIRATION

OUR HIGH CODE of business ethics has enabled us to serve the people of Youngstown since eighteen fifty-one, and the confidence our customers place in our ability to produce products of high quality and craftsmanship gives us the INSPIRATION to strive to set a higher standard . . . this is an important quality to our success . . . therefore, students in all walks of life, to succeed, must be INSPIRED by those with a high moral code that have gone before, and laid the groundwork of our civilization . . .
